

Why Join the Commercial Center Business Association?

Support, Advocate, and Grow Together!

The Commercial Center Business Association (CCBA), under the visionary leadership of Paula Sadler, President & Founder, is here to strengthen and elevate the Historic Commercial Center District. Established in 2007 as a community clean up, and now a program of the Lov8u Foundation, the CCBA is dedicated to supporting local businesses and the community through advocacy, resources, and impactful initiatives—all funded solely by donations.

Your Contribution Makes a Difference We request a $100 monthly donation to support critical programs that directly benefit your business and the Commercial Center District, including:

- Neighborhood Watch: Creating a safer environment for businesses and customers.
- Parking Lot & Sidewalk Cleaning: Weekly cleaning services, including small trash liner replacements.
- Social Media Marketing: Promotion of businesses through our robust social media presence with thousands of followers and likes.
- Direct Referrals & Group Advertising Campaigns: Boost visibility through shared efforts.
- Community Events: Enhance foot traffic and customer engagement.
- 24/7 Phone Line Support & Website Hosting: Constant communication and digital resources for businesses.
